Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312 / surveillance

February 23, 1923. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal, and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N. J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative proceeded to and located in the vicinity of Subject's home, and the Lord Sterling School.

At about 11.10 a.m. the Subject came from his home and proceeded to and entered the Lord Sterling School. The Subject was observed by Operative, moving about the school as if cleaning, etc.

At about 2.30 p.m. the Subject left the School Building and proceeded to and entered his home at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J.

At about 3.55 p.m. the Subject came from his home, visited the school, remained there a short time, and then returned to his home.

A short time after the Subject had last entered his home, a small boy came from the house, proceeded to a nearby store and in a short time returned to the home of the Subject, carrying a bottle of milk and an evening paper.

Operative kept the building at #49 Carman St., New Brunswick, N.J., under surveillance until 9.35 p.m. and then proceeded to the railroad station and boarded a train for New York City, and discontinued.

There were no other activities concerning the Subject, other than as mentioned above.
